PGS DOES WICKED DEALS FOR LEAGUE OF SUPER EVIL

Kids specialists distribution PGS Entertainment have today announced a bunch of sales for Nerd Corps hit series League of Super Evil through Europe in Italy, Poland, Ukraine, and Azerbaidjan.

The series has been snapped up by De A Kids in Italy, Canal + Poland, SBT Ukraine, and Azerbaidjan Lider TV.

Award winning League of Super Evil has been widely broadcast over the past year, and was recently voted best Animated series at the KidScreen Summit 2010 and has already been sold to over 100+ territories worldwide including Cartoon Network US, YTV, BBC, DXD, Nickelodeon accumulating a huge fan base.

The quirky series created by Canadian outfit Nerd Corps Entertainment, brings a whole new approach to badness, following four Super Villains who have their sets sight on nothing less than total neighborhood domination! Between battling obnoxious traffic cops, flogging watered down lemonade or scheming to be the first in line for the new iDestruct, the L.O.S.E. anti-heroes struggle ever-onward toward their goal of total mindless fun.

Philippe Soutter, MD of PGS Entertainment said, "L.O.S.E is a fantastic show with massive global appeal. The series' worldwide success is testament to Nerd Corps' brilliantly executed visual humor and slick storylines, resulting in a show that everyone wants to schedule. We are delighted with these new deals with MTV3 Finland and De A Kids Italy, who are the ideal broadcast partners in each of their dedicated territories."

Ken Faier, President of Nerd Corps Entertainment added, "PGS have done a great job placing the series. We couldn't be more pleased to have these new partners in place. Global domination is what The Great Voltar and his crew are striving for, and PGS is certainly helping them on their way!"
